“Grace is not part of consciousness; it is the amount of light in our souls, not knowledge nor reason.”

We watched her move with effortless elegance amidst the gorgeous green, sunlit trees. Embodiment of ‘youth’, her innocent eyes are the window to her soul. A soul, so precious and luminescent, her glowing skin, her simple and chaste look, her angel-like curly hair, her tantalizing attitude...she can never fade away from one’s memory. She was quite quiet, yet her spirit was young and free, she is summer, she is truth, she is beauty and she is...Grace.

Grace can easily make friends. Her trendy, minimalist dressing style, the soothing colours she wears or the carefully chosen uncomplicated accessories, Grace is a popular icon among her friends. The ease and classiness with which she carries herself is indeed exemplary. To her, ‘youth’ is not a time of life. It is a state of mind, and a temper of the will. It is that force which encourages courage to dominate fear; it is all about the power of imagination and the vigor of emotions.

It is said that one step starts a journey, one word starts a prayer, one hope raises the spirits, and one touch can show we care. Grace’s healing touch and soothing words always weaved charm. It was summer time, and as always, she was soaking the sun, when she heard the sound of nature closing in on her. The buzz of the bees, chirping of the birds, fluttering wings of the dove, and the bashful sound of the deer that would nimbly jump and try to avoid human contact...it was sheer pleasure for the soul.

Amidst all of this, Grace heard a deer’s cry. She followed the sound and found a deer caught in a hunter’s trap. Not just Grace by name or Grace in style, she is Grace personified. She walked up to the poor creature and tried her best to release it from the clutches of the piercing trap. Her struggles failed, but she didn’t give up. Patience and perseverance can never fail. And it seemed as if Grace’s healing touch breathed life into the almost lifeless soul. The deer sprang up and ran into the wilderness...wild and free! She is young, wild and free too! Not just her outer self, it is her passion for life, her simplicity and caring nature and a genuine inner self that sum up to give a more powerful meaning to her name...GRACE.

Touched by the sun and softly wrapped in chiffon made of the same scorched sizzling color, she moved like a phoenix through space and time. Her long, sleek, and finely bronzed body gliding across an unknown shore. With sand in her toes and the smell of the exotic air stretched from far away continents, woven with mystical salt crystals and the resonating soft sound of seagulls calling out to each other as faded mating whispers, she danced impassioned like an ancient nereid.

She allured the wind to play with her as they, together, recalled her beloved. The rhythm of her ivory sarong, billowing through the air, emulating the waves in front of her and all, wave, body, air, and material seemed harmonious in these swift moments. From soft steps, melting into the delicate sand to more fierce jolting thrusts with her arms, she summoned her lover. Was he really there? Was he near her or a distant audience? Did it matter at all? She could be both exhibitionist to him in the flesh but also in spirit. Their love filled her like a time-worn-majestic goblet brimming with the most noble and superior wine, it was “twice blessed, it blesseth him that gives and him that takes”. Both giver and receiver of this enchanting dance, knew no pride. These two kindred lovers surrendered to each other. They were ageless, timeless and in loves gentle cradled arms. The world around them became an enigma. The outer environment seemed to birth new meaning and yet none of it existed any longer, at least anything of ‘noise’. They were grateful, they were joyful and with each breath together whether in body or spirit, they were humbly aware of their collective expansion. Into the creative unknown....

May, comes right at the cusp of the summer ahead. It fills us all with enthusiasm for taking the rebirth of spring into something of manifest. Yet whatever we are diving into of course carries the fun and playfulness of these sizzling months ahead. Bright, bold colors in everything from hot pants to linen culottes. We can wear very little makeup, or just add shimmer to the cheeks or a red stain to the lips as shown here by our sun-kissed nereid. Embrace looks and colors out of your comfort zone this season and find something to help you feel young again, especially if the accessory is love.

PURE LOVE

Inspired by the psychology of colours, Anamayadesign, is the stylist Ana Belen's sensational and vibrant creation. Drenched in the colours of nature, from the deep blue ocean to the red and black volcanic lava, from the luminescent blue sky to the white sand beaches...Ana's design is a class apart. Myriad of colours have a profound impact on these creations – each one, a masterpiece in itself, screaming the radiance of the effervescent colours.

Born in Tenerife, Canary Islands, Ana finished her studies in the fashion academy of Madrid. She returned to Canary Islands to kick start her dream project. She created her label, Anamayadesign, and left no stone unturned to make her mark in the fashion industry. From traveling to Paris, in search of high quality fabrics, to whetting her fashion appetite by getting in touch with, and being inspired by the fashion honchos...she has done it all, leaving no stone unturned.

When asked what motivates her, she candidly says, "On each season, I travel around the world looking for inspiration and creativity which is then transferred into the designs".

To her, every piece created is precious as it is handmade, using artisan techniques. For instance, the "Pure Love" collection. So, what is it that this bright, radiant collection symbolizes? It represents the colours and the magic of life, she says.

“... Ana's design is a class apart”

Ana is focused, passionate, creative to the core, determined to achieve greater heights of success and make it big in the fashion industry. She is also a very warm and happy person, which reflects in her creations as well. Moving forward, Ana will be launching a new line of espadrilles. She also promises to bring to us "plenty of magic and happiness" through her collections.

While we soak in the beautiful fabric, and vibrant colours of "Pure Love", let's look out for Ana's forthcoming marvelous creations and let unabashed colours rock our world!

MY TOWN "MONACO"

The very name conjures up images of opulence and extravagance. Whether you are there to break the bank or catch an arch criminal one thing you are guaranteed is a unique sense of history and style.

Taking a walk along Rampe Major, with its breathtaking view of the bay and the old city climaxing at the magnificent Le Rocher, fortress of the Grimaldi family, it is difficult not to be enchanted by the historical beauty and fine taste of the architecture that perfectly encapsulates a golden bygone age.

If something a little more action packed is your flavor, the greatest race on the Formula One calendar, the Monaco Grand Prix is the most exhilarating to be had. The ear splitting roar of the engines and the air thick with the smell of rubber on asphalt is more than enough to send even the coolest hearts into adrenaline fueled ecstasy.

Its very easy to not notice you are standing shoulder to shoulder with the rich and famous, united in celebration as the worlds greatest drivers drive on a razor thin line between victory and disaster.

“... opulence and extravagance.”

Equally exciting has to be the Casino de Monte Carlo. The place where the coolest come to test there mettle against the house. Dreams are won and lost at the turn of a card, while we all try to catch sight of a certain Secret Agent sipping his perfect Martini.

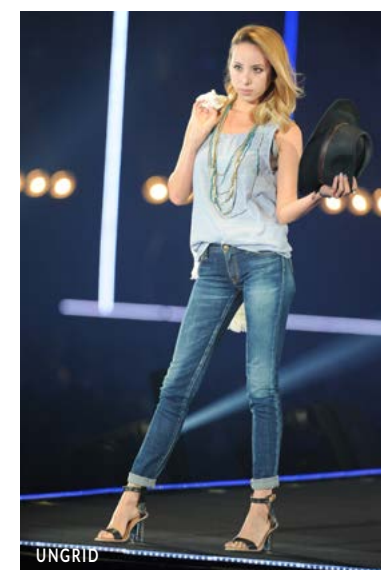

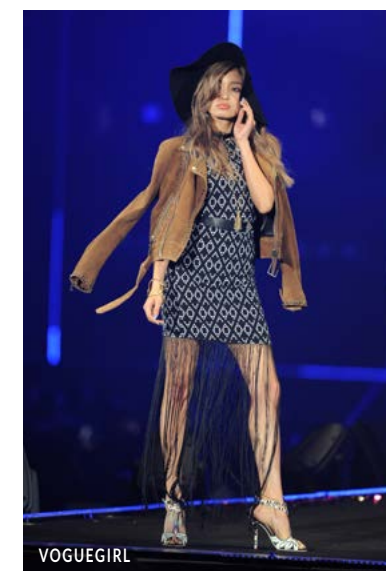

Still not ready to cash in your chips yet? As a sultry sun sets on the bay, idillic scenery gives way to chic and exotic bars leading to an exclusive club scene that will keep you entranced to where, after partying into the early hours, you will find yourself sipping a rejuvenating cocktail, a magnificent sun rising on the Mediterranean beckoning you back into the throng of the morning hustle.

Its true to say Monaco is an eclectic blend of opulent history and the pinnacle of contemporary style. You will be captured by the the Graceful scent of Roses as you pass through Monaco, Little wonder the most elegant lady of the silver screen fell in love with this beguiling principality and her most handsome prince. This is truly the place where dreams come true.

“A picture can tell a thousand words and so can your hair
and makeup.”

I love variety in hair and makeup and so does the fashion and creative world. Each style and look can be appreciated and has its place. Today we look at the simplicity of flawless understated fresh looking hair and makeup that can be kept very natural or have a dominant accent such as a slick ponytail for hair, a liquid liner or a bolder lip.

To wear sleek hair, softly flushed cheeks and lips projects elegance and grace. Keep hair in good condition by regularly trimming off the ends and doing conditioning treatments.

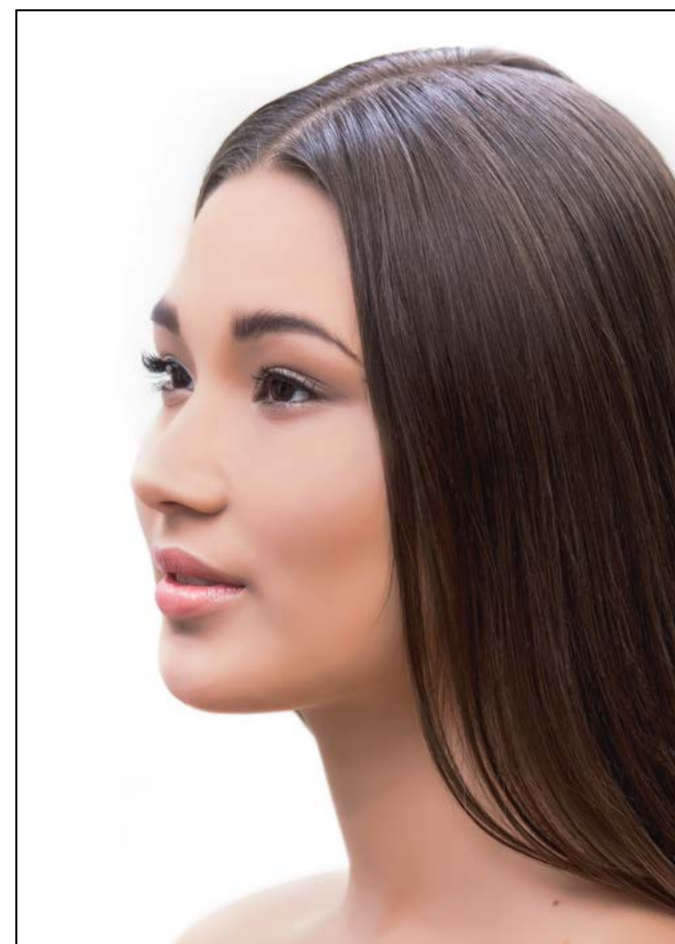

Skin should be exfoliated two or three times a week and kept hydrated by applying a quality organic or natural moisturizer. Drinking adequate water will also help keep skin beautiful.

To create this flawless look use a high quality, natural foundation Primer followed by a sheer layer of loose Mineral foundation using a dense and soft vegan kabuki shaped brush. This will give an airbrushed, flawless looking finish. Highlight and contour the face with various shades of Foundation. Use a peachy pink blush and a peachy/rose pink lipstick. Fill in and areas of the eyebrows that need attention and be sure to brush them. Curl lashes and apply mascara.

To transform this look, try a ponytail, liquid liner or bolder lip. Having one main and dominant makeup feature will keep this look clean and polished. Perfect for the warmer weather.

To Create the flawless looks makeup Artist Kylie Eustace uses: Mineral Goddess all natural and vegan products.
